

Dot Marlow Philanthropic Catalyst Award

At the Community Foundation of Henderson County, we often refer to Dot as our “founding lady.” She joined our organization at a pivotal time, serving as the first female board member, bringing with her the spark that would ignite everything to come. To honor Dot, the Foundation has established the Dot Marlow Philanthropic Catalyst Award.

Nomination Process

All nominations will be reviewed and selected by the Foundation’s Recognition Committee. The Committee’s recommendation will be presented to the Board of Directors for a final vote.

Nomination Qualifications

Nominees must be a living resident of Henderson County. Committees, corporations and organizations are not eligible for the Award.

Reason for Nomination

Recipients exemplify selfless volunteer leadership in philanthropic work for our community’s greater good, remaining engaged with commitment and determination to accomplish results that will help others and create a better future even beyond our lifetime. They continue to advocate positive results and champion the achievement of excellence for everyone to become their best self while supporting our becoming the best community for all. If the Nominee is employed by a nonprofit their efforts must go above and beyond the scope of their job.
